
Is God Real

Psalm 19:1-6

Our world gives plenty of evidence that God is real. In giving the proofs for God's existence, the Bible also gives us the reasons why so many people find it difficult to believe in God. We must be prepared to share the truths found in our world and be ready to work with the mental and emotional responses to that truth.

1. The existence of the _____

Psalm 19:1-6 (creation & creator)

- a) The _____ points to God's existence (vs. 1)
- b) The whole world experiences the same declaration from the _____ of God (vs. 2-4)
- c) The God who is in the farthest heaven is also the God of each _____ and _____ (vs. 4-6)
 - If a God of glory and creation exists, then I must _____ about Him and His truth (1).

2. The _____ of what we see

Romans 1:18-23 (complexity & dependency)

- a) God wants us to _____ the truth of who He is by doing what is right (vs. 18)
- b) Creation shows us God's attributes, eternal power and _____ nature (vs. 20)

Is God Real - Continued

Psalm 19:1-6

2. The _____ of what we see - continued

- c) God wants us to _____ Him and _____ Him (vs. 21)
 - If a creative, all-powerful divine God exists, then I should demonstrate His _____ and righteousness (18).
 - If a creative, all-powerful divine God exists, then I am _____ to Him (20).

3. Our sense of _____ and _____

Romans 2:11-16 (accuser & excuser)

- a) God is looking for _____ to what is right (vs. 11-14)
- b) God's law is written on our _____ and is dealt with by our _____ (vs. 14-15)
- c) We experience _____ when we do what is wrong (vs. 15-16)
 - If a God of laws exists, then I need to _____ His law (13).
 - If a God of laws exists, then I will have real shame and _____ when I disobey.

❖ Insight for life:

I will share the truth that God is real and offer God's _____ in Christ for the fears people have.

Is God Real

Psalm 19:1-6

Our world gives plenty of evidence that God is real. In giving the proofs for God's existence, the Bible also gives us the reasons why so many people find it difficult to believe in God. We must be prepared to share the truths found in our world and be ready to work with the mental and emotional responses to that truth.

1. The existence of the heavens

Psalm 19:1-6 (creation & creator)

- a) The universe points to God's existence (vs. 1)
- b) The whole world experiences the same declaration from the handiwork of God (vs. 2-4)
- c) The God who is in the farthest heaven is also the God of each day and night (vs. 4-6)
 - If a God of glory and creation exists, then I must learn about Him and His truth (1).

2. The nature of what we see

Romans 1:18-23 (complexity & dependency)

- a) God wants us to demonstrate the truth of who He is by doing what is right (vs. 18)
- b) Creation shows us God's attributes, eternal power and divine nature (vs. 20)

Is God Real - Continued

Psalm 19:1-6

2. The nature of what we see - continued

- c) God wants us to honor Him and thank Him (vs. 21)
 - If a creative, all-powerful divine God exists, then I should demonstrate His truth and righteousness (18).
 - If a creative, all-powerful divine God exists, then I am accountable to Him (20).

3. Our sense of right and wrong

Romans 2:11-16 (accuser & excuser)

- a) God is looking for obedience to what is right (vs. 11-14)
- b) God's law is written on our hearts and is dealt with by our conscience (vs. 14-15)
- c) We experience accusation when we do what is wrong (vs. 15-16)
 - If a God of laws exists, then I need to obey His law (13).
 - If a God of laws exists, then I will have real shame and guilt when I disobey.

❖ Insight for life:

I will share the truth that God is real and offer God's forgiveness in Christ for the fears people have.