

The Four Faces of Manhood

1 Timothy 6:7-12

Men's Fraternity is for men who understand that authentic manhood does not just happen, it must be pursued. It lets men understand where they have come from, where they are and gives them the tools to become the man that they have always wanted to be. The four faces of manhood reveal our weaknesses, our strengths and what we hope to be as authentic men in our world.

1. The face of the _____

(Proverbs 4:18; 20:7)

- a. This is a face _____ righteous energy
- b. This is a face characterized by strong conviction, courageous moral choices, a servant spirit and _____ leadership

2. The face of the _____

(1 Timothy 6:11-12)

- a. This is a face reflecting _____ energy
- b. This is a face characterized by _____, protecting, providing, persevering and fighting

3. The face of the _____

(Ephesians 5:25)

- a. This is a face reflecting _____ energy
- b. This is a face characterized by _____, sensitivity, sacrificial care, emotional openness and physical affection

(continued on back)

4. The face of the _____

(Proverbs 17:17; 27:17)

- a. This is a face reflecting _____ energy
- b. This is a face characterized by _____, accountability, challenge and fun

INSIGHT FOR LIFE

If the faces are not kept in balance, then the _____ forces of sin in our culture will produce unwanted faces.

Escape	Balance	Excess
Abdication	King	Tyrant
Compromised	Righteous	Demanding
Wimp	Warrior	Destroyer
Gives up	Initiative	Abusive
Cold	Lover	Critical
Withdrawn	Tenderness	Harsh
Loner	Friend	User
Disconnected	Loyalty	Betrayer

The Four Faces of Manhood

1 Timothy 6:7-12

Men's Fraternity is for men who understand that authentic manhood does not just happen, it must be pursued. It lets men understand where they have come from, where they are and gives them the tools to become the man that they have always wanted to be. The four faces of manhood reveal our weaknesses, our strengths and what we hope to be as authentic men in our world.

1. The face of the king

(Proverbs 4:18; 20:7)

- This is a face reflecting righteous energy
- This is a face characterized by strong conviction, courageous moral choices, a servant spirit and righteous leadership

2. The face of the warrior

(1 Timothy 6:11-12)

- This is a face reflecting conquering energy
- This is a face characterized by initiative, protecting, providing, persevering and fighting

3. The face of the lover

(Ephesians 5:25)

- This is a face reflecting romantic energy
- This is a face characterized by tenderness, sensitivity, sacrificial care, emotional openness and physical affection

(continued on back)

4. The face of the friend

(Proverbs 17:17; 27:17)

- This is a face reflecting connecting energy
- This is a face characterized by loyalty, accountability, challenge and fun

INSIGHT FOR LIFE

If the faces are not kept in balance, then the destructive forces of sin in our culture will produce unwanted faces.

Escape	Balance	Excess
Abdication	King	Tyrant
Compromised	Righteous	Demanding
Wimp	Warrior	Destroyer
Gives up	Initiative	Abusive
Cold	Lover	Critical
Withdrawn	Tenderness	Harsh
Loner	Friend	User
Disconnected	Loyalty	Betrayer