
The Goals of Liberty

1 Corinthians 10:1-33

Christian liberty proclaims that we are free. A Christian needs to understand why they have been made free. We are free from the Mosaic Law and the judgment of sin. More importantly, God makes us free to live in newness of life that can overcome sin. Fulfillment in life comes when we choose to accomplish the Goals of Christian Liberty.

1. Use your liberty to _____

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

- a) Pleasing God involves being more than just “part of the _____” (vs. 1-5)
- b) Pleasing God involves controlling your _____ (vs. 6-12)
- c) Pleasing God involves choosing the power and plan of God in the midst of _____ (vs. 13)
 - Choose God _____ sin.

2. Use your liberty to be _____ to the body of Christ

1 Corinthians 10:14-22

- a) We have a share in the blood and body of _____ (vs. 14-18)
- b) The world invites us to be sharers in _____ (vs. 19-21)
 - Give your _____ to Jesus.
