
The Mystery of Resurrection

1 Corinthians 15:35-58

Many Corinthians believed that there was no resurrection or that resurrection only involved the spirit of a man going on to a greater good. They were not motivated to invest in their eternal life. Paul shared the answers to three key questions that revealed the mystery of resurrection to the Corinthians and the challenge to invest in their eternal life.

1. What is the _____ of our resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:35-41

- a) You are like a _____ that comes to life after death (vs. 35-37)
 - b) God has _____ a unique body for your resurrection (vs. 38)
 - c) The _____ of your heavenly body will be different from the glory of your earthly body (vs. 39-41)
- The resurrection is a _____ of God.

2. What is the _____ of our resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:42-49

- a) Your perishable body changes to an _____ body (vs. 42)
- b) Your dishonorable body changes to a _____ body (vs. 43)
- c) Your life lived in weakness changes to a life lived in _____ (vs. 43)

Paul shared the answers to three key questions that revealed the mystery of resurrection to the Corinthians and the challenge to invest in their eternal life.

1. What is the nature of our resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:35-41

- a) You are like a seed that comes to life after death (vs. 35-37)
 - b) God has designed a unique body for your resurrection (vs. 38)
 - c) The glory of your heavenly body will be different from the glory of your earthly body (vs. 39-41)
- The resurrection is a miracle of God.

2. What is the outcome of our resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:42-49

- a) Your perishable body changes to an imperishable body (vs. 42)
- b) Your dishonorable body changes to a glorified body (vs. 43)
- c) Your life lived in weakness changes to a life lived in power (vs. 43)

- d) Your natural body changes to a spiritual body (vs. 44)
- Just as we have borne the image of the earthly, we will also bear the image of the heavenly.

3. What is the victory of our resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:50-58

- a) We will not all sleep but we will all be changed (vs. 50-53)
 - b) Death is swallowed up in victory (vs. 54)
 - c) God gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ (vs. 57)
- Resurrection allows us to overcome sin and death.

❖ Insight for life:

I will be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that my toil is not in vain in the Lord (58).
