

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Faith Joshua 2:1-24

The stage is set with Joshua as the leader of the people of Israel. Joshua has challenged the leaders and given directions to prepare to take possession of the land that God was giving them. The next story in the Book of Joshua doesn't have heroic figures like Moses or Joshua. As we read through chapter two, we encounter some ordinary people with extraordinary faith. From their story, we see three lessons concerning extraordinary faith.

1. _____ people can have extraordinary faith

(Joshua 2:1-7)

- a) The two spies have no _____ credentials
(vs. 1-2)
- b) Rahab has _____ physical credentials
(vs. 1-7)

My _____ attributes do not determine my ability to have a faith that rises up for God.

2. Extraordinary faith comes by _____

(Joshua 2:8-14)

- a) The spies believed the words of _____ passed down by Moses to Joshua (Joshua 1:1-3)
- b) Rahab believed the _____ of God's actions for the people of Israel (vs. 8-14)

(continued on back)

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Faith Joshua 2:1-24

The stage is set with Joshua as the leader of the people of Israel. Joshua has challenged the leaders and given directions to prepare to take possession of the land that God was giving them. The next story in the Book of Joshua doesn't have heroic figures like Moses or Joshua. As we read through chapter two, we encounter some ordinary people with extraordinary faith. From their story, we see three lessons concerning extraordinary faith.

1. _____ people can have extraordinary faith

(Joshua 2:1-7)

- a) The two spies have no _____ credentials
(vs. 1-2)
- b) Rahab has _____ physical credentials
(vs. 1-7)

My _____ attributes do not determine my ability to have a faith that rises up for God.

2. Extraordinary faith comes by _____

(Joshua 2:8-14)

- a) The spies believed the words of _____ passed down by Moses to Joshua (Joshua 1:1-3)
- b) Rahab believed the _____ of God's actions for the people of Israel (vs. 8-14)

(continued on back)

I will let the word of God _____ a faith in me that trusts God. (Romans 10:17)

3. Extraordinary faith has _____

(Joshua 2:6, 15-24)

a) The men chose to _____ their lives and trust the woman of Jericho (vs. 6, 15-24)

b) Rahab chose to trust and _____ the men of God (vs. 6, 15-21)

c) God's word produces a faith containing strength and _____ that challenges you act (James 2:25-26)

Heeding the call to action from God's word will give me a faith that _____ God.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will believe God's word, trust God's promises and will _____ the call to have a life of extraordinary faith.

I will let the word of God _____ a faith in me that trusts God. (Romans 10:17)

3. Extraordinary faith has _____

(Joshua 2:6, 15-24)

a) The men chose to _____ their lives and trust the woman of Jericho (vs. 6, 15-24)

b) Rahab chose to trust and _____ the men of God (vs. 6, 15-21)

c) God's word produces a faith containing strength and _____ that challenges you act (James 2:25-26)

Heeding the call to action from God's word will give me a faith that _____ God.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will believe God's word, trust God's promises and will _____ the call to have a life of extraordinary faith.

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Faith Joshua 2:1-24

The stage is set with Joshua as the leader of the people of Israel. Joshua has challenged the leaders and given directions to prepare to take possession of the land that God was giving them. The next story in the Book of Joshua doesn't have heroic figures like Moses or Joshua. As we read through chapter two, we encounter some ordinary people with extraordinary faith. From their story, we see three lessons concerning extraordinary faith.

1. Ordinary people can have extraordinary faith

(Joshua 2:1-7)

- a) The two spies have no physical credentials
(vs. 1-2)
- b) Rahab has demeaning physical credentials
(vs. 1-7)

My physical attributes do not determine my ability to have a faith that rises up for God.

2. Extraordinary faith comes by hearing

(Joshua 2:8-14)

- a) The spies believed the words of God passed down by Moses to Joshua (Joshua 1:1-3)
- b) Rahab believed the reports of God's actions for the people of Israel (vs. 8-14)

(continued on back)

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Faith Joshua 2:1-24

The stage is set with Joshua as the leader of the people of Israel. Joshua has challenged the leaders and given directions to prepare to take possession of the land that God was giving them. The next story in the Book of Joshua doesn't have heroic figures like Moses or Joshua. As we read through chapter two, we encounter some ordinary people with extraordinary faith. From their story, we see three lessons concerning extraordinary faith.

1. Ordinary people can have extraordinary faith

(Joshua 2:1-7)

- a) The two spies have no physical credentials
(vs. 1-2)
- b) Rahab has demeaning physical credentials
(vs. 1-7)

My physical attributes do not determine my ability to have a faith that rises up for God.

2. Extraordinary faith comes by hearing

(Joshua 2:8-14)

- a) The spies believed the words of God passed down by Moses to Joshua (Joshua 1:1-3)
- b) Rahab believed the reports of God's actions for the people of Israel (vs. 8-14)

(continued on back)

I will let the word of God produce a faith in me that trusts God. (Romans 10:17)

3. Extraordinary faith has action

(Joshua 2:6, 15-24)

- a) The men chose to risk their lives and trust the woman of Jericho (vs. 6, 15-24)
- b) Rahab chose to trust and hide the men of God (vs. 6, 15-21)
- c) God's word produces a faith containing strength and courage that challenges you act (James 2:25-26)

Heeding the call to action from God's word will give me a faith that serves God.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will believe God's word, trust God's promises and will answer the call to have a life of extraordinary faith.

I will let the word of God produce a faith in me that trusts God. (Romans 10:17)

3. Extraordinary faith has action

(Joshua 2:6, 15-24)

- a) The men chose to risk their lives and trust the woman of Jericho (vs. 6, 15-24)
- b) Rahab chose to trust and hide the men of God (vs. 6, 15-21)
- c) God's word produces a faith containing strength and courage that challenges you act (James 2:25-26)

Heeding the call to action from God's word will give me a faith that serves God.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will believe God's word, trust God's promises and will answer the call to have a life of extraordinary faith.