

The Power of Jesus (1)

Mark 1:1-45

Mark's gospel was the earliest of the four gospels and was written primarily for Roman readers. Because Peter was close to Mark, calling him "my son" (1 Peter 5:13), it is widely believed that Mark's material came from Peter and so it holds the authority of the apostle and the characteristics of Peter's personality. Mark presents a clear gospel message to a Gentile audience. His writing focuses on what Jesus did and the power that He displayed as the Servant of God.

1. The power of His _____

(Mark 1:1-20)

- a) Jesus is the _____ of God (vs. 1)
- b) John the Baptist was the prophesied messenger that said Jesus would baptize with the _____
(vs. 2-8)
- c) The voice of the Father and the presence of the Spirit acknowledge the _____ of the Servant (vs. 9-11)
- d) The victory over temptation reveals the _____ of the Servant (vs. 12-13)
- e) Jesus calls men to _____ work (vs. 16-20)

Have you said "yes" to the call of Jesus to _____ Him?

(continued on back)

The Power of Jesus (1)

Mark 1:1-45

Mark's gospel was the earliest of the four gospels and was written primarily for Roman readers. Because Peter was close to Mark, calling him "my son" (1 Peter 5:13), it is widely believed that Mark's material came from Peter and so it holds the authority of the apostle and the characteristics of Peter's personality. Mark presents a clear gospel message to a Gentile audience. His writing focuses on what Jesus did and the power that He displayed as the Servant of God.

1. The power of His _____

(Mark 1:1-20)

- a) Jesus is the _____ of God (vs. 1)
- b) John the Baptist was the prophesied messenger that said Jesus would baptize with the _____
(vs. 2-8)
- c) The voice of the Father and the presence of the Spirit acknowledge the _____ of the Servant (vs. 9-11)
- d) The victory over temptation reveals the _____ of the Servant (vs. 12-13)
- e) Jesus calls men to _____ work (vs. 16-20)

Have you said "yes" to the call of Jesus to _____ Him?

(continued on back)

2. The power of His _____

(Mark 1:14-15, 21-22)

a) Jesus is the _____ who calls us to repent and believe in the gospel (vs. 14-15)

b) He taught as one with _____ (vs. 21-22)

Do you submit to the authority of Christ's _____?

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I will invite the _____ and power of the Holy One of God to have authority in my life.

2. The power of His _____

(Mark 1:14-15, 21-22)

a) Jesus is the _____ who calls us to repent and believe in the gospel (vs. 14-15)

b) He taught as one with _____ (vs. 21-22)

Do you submit to the authority of Christ's _____?

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I will invite the _____ and power of the Holy One of God to have authority in my life.

The Power of Jesus (1)

Mark 1:1-45

Mark's gospel was the earliest of the four gospels and was written primarily for Roman readers. Because Peter was close to Mark, calling him "my son" (1 Peter 5:13), it is widely believed that Mark's material came from Peter and so it holds the authority of the apostle and the characteristics of Peter's personality. Mark presents a clear gospel message to a Gentile audience. His writing focuses on what Jesus did and the power that He displayed as the Servant of God.

1. The power of His credentials

(Mark 1:1-20)

- a) Jesus is the Son of God (vs. 1)
- b) John the Baptist was the prophesied messenger that said Jesus would baptize with the Holy Spirit (vs. 2-8)
- c) The voice of the Father and the presence of the Spirit acknowledge the deity of the Servant (vs. 9-11)
- d) The victory over temptation reveals the righteousness of the Servant (vs. 12-13)
- e) Jesus calls men to God's work (vs. 16-20)

Have you said "yes" to the call of Jesus to follow Him?

(continued on back)

The Power of Jesus (1)

Mark 1:1-45

Mark's gospel was the earliest of the four gospels and was written primarily for Roman readers. Because Peter was close to Mark, calling him "my son" (1 Peter 5:13), it is widely believed that Mark's material came from Peter and so it holds the authority of the apostle and the characteristics of Peter's personality. Mark presents a clear gospel message to a Gentile audience. His writing focuses on what Jesus did and the power that He displayed as the Servant of God.

1. The power of His credentials

(Mark 1:1-20)

- a) Jesus is the Son of God (vs. 1)
- b) John the Baptist was the prophesied messenger that said Jesus would baptize with the Holy Spirit (vs. 2-8)
- c) The voice of the Father and the presence of the Spirit acknowledge the deity of the Servant (vs. 9-11)
- d) The victory over temptation reveals the righteousness of the Servant (vs. 12-13)
- e) Jesus calls men to God's work (vs. 16-20)

Have you said "yes" to the call of Jesus to follow Him?

(continued on back)

2. The power of His teaching

(Mark 1:14-15, 21-22)

- a) Jesus is the King who calls us to repent and believe in the gospel (vs. 14-15)

- b) He taught as one with authority (vs. 21-22)

Do you submit to the authority of Christ's Word?

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I will invite the person and power of the Holy One of God to have authority in my life

2. The power of His teaching

(Mark 1:14-15, 21-22)

- a) Jesus is the King who calls us to repent and believe in the gospel (vs. 14-15)

- b) He taught as one with authority (vs. 21-22)

Do you submit to the authority of Christ's Word?

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I will invite the person and power of the Holy One of God to have authority in my life