

God's Plan for Your Battle

Joshua 8:1-35

Defeat in life can happen to anyone, but a defeat that occurs from breaking your connection with God is the worst kind of defeat. Once defeat has occurred, God still has a plan for your life. Joshua was told that God's plan for Israel began by going back to the city of Ai. Joshua could expect a different plan and a different result because God was fighting with him. Three elements stand out in God's plan for battle and our victory.

1. The battle _____ after defeat

(Joshua 8:1-9)

- a) Do not fear or be _____ (vs. 1-2)
- b) Go back to the _____ of defeat (vs. 1-2)
- c) Remember to not fight _____ (vs. 3-9)

God, let me find victory by _____ You and others in my battles.

2. The plan for _____ in battle

(Joshua 8:10-29)

- a) _____ the ground you're given (vs. 10-13)
- b) Your weakness is the _____ of God's plan (vs. 14-17)
- c) Victory is achieved when God _____ something in your hand (vs. 18-29)

(continued on back)

God's Plan for Your Battle

Joshua 8:1-35

Defeat in life can happen to anyone, but a defeat that occurs from breaking your connection with God is the worst kind of defeat. Once defeat has occurred, God still has a plan for your life. Joshua was told that God's plan for Israel began by going back to the city of Ai. Joshua could expect a different plan and a different result because God was fighting with him. Three elements stand out as God's plan for battle and our victory.

1. The battle _____ after defeat

(Joshua 8:1-9)

- a) Do not fear or be _____ (vs. 1-2)
- b) Go back to the _____ of defeat (vs. 1-2)
- c) Remember to not fight _____ (vs. 3-9)

God, let me find victory by _____ You and others in my battles.

2. The plan for _____ in battle

(Joshua 8:10-29)

- a) _____ the ground you're given (vs. 10-13)
- b) Your weakness is the _____ of God's plan (vs. 14-17)
- c) Victory is achieved when God _____ something in your hand (vs. 18-29)

(continued on back)

God, let me find victory by being _____ to how
You want to use me (not how I want to use You).

3. The _____ of God's covenant

(Joshua 8:30-35)

a) God deserves my _____ (vs. 30-31)

b) God's commands deserve my _____
(vs. 32-35)

God, let me find victory by _____ Your word.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will make myself available and _____ for
God's plans for my battles.

God, let me find victory by being _____ to how
You want to use me (not how I want to use You).

3. The _____ of God's covenant

(Joshua 8:30-35)

a) God deserves my _____ (vs. 30-31)

b) God's commands deserve my _____
(vs. 32-35)

God, let me find victory by _____ Your word.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will make myself available and _____ for
God's plans for my battles.

God's Plan for Your Battle

Joshua 8:1-35

Defeat in life can happen to anyone, but a defeat that occurs from breaking your connection with God is the worst kind of defeat. Once defeat has occurred, God still has a plan for your life. Joshua was told that God's plan for Israel began by going back to the city of Ai. Joshua could expect a different plan and a different result because God was fighting with him. Three elements stand out in God's plan for battle and our victory.

1. The battle strategy after defeat

(Joshua 8:1-9)

- a) Do not fear or be dismayed (vs. 1-2)
- b) Go back to the place of defeat (vs. 1-2)
- c) Remember to not fight alone (vs. 3-9)

God, let me find victory by including You and others in my battles.

2. The plan for success in battle

(Joshua 8:10-29)

- a) Occupy the ground you're given (vs. 10-13)
- b) Your weakness is the strength of God's plan (vs. 14-17)
- c) Victory is achieved when God places something in your hand (vs. 18-29)

(continued on back)

God's Plan for Your Battle

Joshua 8:1-35

Defeat in life can happen to anyone, but a defeat that occurs from breaking your connection with God is the worst kind of defeat. Once defeat has occurred, God still has a plan for your life. Joshua was told that God's plan for Israel began by going back to the city of Ai. Joshua could expect a different plan and a different result because God was fighting with him. Three elements stand out in God's plan for battle and our victory.

1. The battle strategy after defeat

(Joshua 8:1-9)

- a) Do not fear or be dismayed (vs. 1-2)
- b) Go back to the place of defeat (vs. 1-2)
- c) Remember to not fight alone (vs. 3-9)

God, let me find victory by including You and others in my battles.

2. The plan for success in battle

(Joshua 8:10-29)

- a) Occupy the ground you're given (vs. 10-13)
- b) Your weakness is the strength of God's plan (vs. 14-17)
- c) Victory is achieved when God places something in your hand (vs. 18-29)

(continued on back)

God, let me find victory by being faithful to how You want to use me (not how I want to use You).

3. The statements of God's covenant

(Joshua 8:30-35)

a) God deserves my sacrifice (vs. 30-31)

b) God's commands deserve my obedience
(vs. 32-35)

God, let me find victory by heeding Your word.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will make myself available and prepared for God's plans for my battles.

God, let me find victory by being faithful to how You want to use me (not how I want to use You).

3. The statements of God's covenant

(Joshua 8:30-35)

a) God deserves my sacrifice (vs. 30-31)

b) God's commands deserve my obedience
(vs. 32-35)

God, let me find victory by heeding Your word.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I will make myself available and prepared for God's plans for my battles.