

A Demonstration of Faith

1 Kings 17:1 – 18:40

Ahab was the most evil king in Israel. The Bible says that “there was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the Lord like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife incited” (21:25). King Ahab officially established and promoted Baal worship in the kingdom of Israel. God raised up Elijah to be the light and truth that the people needed. Elijah teaches that what you have faith in and how you demonstrate your faith are important. Three questions arise from Elijah’s life and ministry to Israel.

1. Are you demonstrating faith or only trusting in what can be _____?

(1 Kings 17:1-16)

- a) Does your faith allow for God to use _____ resources (vs. 1-7)?
- b) Does your faith allow for God to act in a _____ way (vs. 8-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His _____.

2. Are you demonstrating faith or _____?

(1 Kings 17:17 – 18:16)

- a) Is your faith affected by the _____ of the Lord or circumstances (17:17-24)?
- b) Is your faith controlled by _____ or safety (18:1-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His _____.

(continued on back)

A Demonstration of Faith

1 Kings 17:1 – 18:40

Ahab was the most evil king in Israel. The Bible says that “there was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the Lord like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife incited” (21:25). King Ahab officially established and promoted Baal worship in the kingdom of Israel. God raised up Elijah to be the light and truth that the people needed. Elijah teaches that what you have faith in and how you demonstrate your faith are important. Three questions arise from Elijah’s life and ministry to Israel.

1. Are you demonstrating faith or only trusting in what can be _____?

(1 Kings 17:1-16)

- a) Does your faith allow for God to use _____ resources (vs. 1-7)?
- b) Does your faith allow for God to act in a _____ way (vs. 8-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His _____.

2. Are you demonstrating faith or _____?

(1 Kings 17:17 – 18:16)

- a) Is your faith affected by the _____ of the Lord or circumstances (17:17-24)?
- b) Is your faith controlled by _____ or safety (18:1-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His _____.

(continued on back)

3. Are you demonstrating faith or trying to _____ a choice?

(1 Kings 18:17-40)

- a) Does _____ or righteousness create your problems (vs. 17-19)?
- b) How long will you _____ between two opinions (vs. 20-24)?
- c) Will you let your heart be _____ (vs. 25-40)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His

_____.

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I recognize that faith should be a conscious choice. I will respond to God's _____ to decide "who is God?"

3. Are you demonstrating faith or trying to _____ a choice?

(1 Kings 18:17-40)

- a) Does _____ or righteousness create your problems (vs. 17-19)?
- b) How long will you _____ between two opinions (vs. 20-24)?
- c) Will you let your heart be _____ (vs. 25-40)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His

_____.

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I recognize that faith should be a conscious choice. I will respond to God's _____ to decide "who is God?"

A Demonstration of Faith

1 Kings 17:1 – 18:40

Ahab was the most evil king in Israel. The Bible says that “there was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the Lord like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife incited” (21:25). King Ahab officially established and promoted Baal worship in the kingdom of Israel. God raised up Elijah to be the light and truth that the people needed. Elijah teaches that what you have faith in and how you demonstrate your faith are important. Three questions arise from Elijah’s life and ministry to Israel.

1. Are you demonstrating faith or only trusting in what can be seen?

(1 Kings 17:1-16)

- a) Does your faith allow for God to use unusual resources (vs. 1-7)?
- b) Does your faith allow for God to act in a miraculous way (vs. 8-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His faithfulness.

2. Are you demonstrating faith or fear?

(1 Kings 17:17 – 18:16)

- a) Is your faith affected by the word of the Lord or circumstances (17:17-24)?
- b) Is your faith controlled by lordship or safety (18:1-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His power.

(continued on back)

A Demonstration of Faith

1 Kings 17:1 – 18:40

Ahab was the most evil king in Israel. The Bible says that “there was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the Lord like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife incited” (21:25). King Ahab officially established and promoted Baal worship in the kingdom of Israel. God raised up Elijah to be the light and truth that the people needed. Elijah teaches that what you have faith in and how you demonstrate your faith are important. Three questions arise from Elijah’s life and ministry to Israel.

1. Are you demonstrating faith or only trusting in what can be seen?

(1 Kings 17:1-16)

- a) Does your faith allow for God to use unusual resources (vs. 1-7)?
- b) Does your faith allow for God to act in a miraculous way (vs. 8-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His faithfulness.

2. Are you demonstrating faith or fear?

(1 Kings 17:17 – 18:16)

- a) Is your faith affected by the word of the Lord or circumstances (17:17-24)?
- b) Is your faith controlled by lordship or safety (18:1-16)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His power.

(continued on back)

3. Are you demonstrating faith or trying to avoid a choice?

(1 Kings 18:17-40)

- a) Does sin or righteousness create your problems (vs. 17-19)?
- b) How long will you limp between two opinions (vs. 20-24)?
- c) Will you let your heart be turned (vs. 25-40)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His supremacy.

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I recognize that faith should be a conscious choice. I will respond to God's call to decide "who is God?"

3. Are you demonstrating faith or trying to avoid a choice?

(1 Kings 18:17-40)

- a) Does sin or righteousness create your problems (vs. 17-19)?
- b) How long will you limp between two opinions (vs. 20-24)?
- c) Will you let your heart be turned (vs. 25-40)?

God is pleased when you put faith in His supremacy.

MY STANDARD FOR FAITH:

I recognize that faith should be a conscious choice. I will respond to God's call to decide "who is God?"