

The Demonstration of Grace

Titus 2:11-15

Why would someone want to try to live a godly life? It can seem out of reach and leave you with a sense of failure and powerlessness. Paul explains that grace is not only the reason for living a godly life but it is also the source of the power to live that life. God's grace is more than a concept or a hope that we have. God has provided a living demonstration of His grace. Paul gives you four things to understand about God's demonstration of grace.

1. The _____ of God's grace

(Titus 2:11)

- a) Grace appeared in the person of _____
- b) Grace brings _____ to all men
- c) You are saved by grace through _____
(Ephesians 2:8-9)

The grace that is available to all men must be recognized and _____.

2. Your _____ under grace

(Titus 2:12)

- a) Grace teaches you to say "No" to ungodliness and _____ passions
- b) Grace teaches you to live _____, upright, and godly lives (inward – outward – upward)

(continued on back)

The Demonstration of Grace

Titus 2:11-15

Why would someone want to try to live a godly life? It can seem out of reach and leave you with a sense of failure and powerlessness. Paul explains that grace is not only the reason for living a godly life but it is also the source of the power to live that life. God's grace is more than a concept or a hope that we have. God has provided a living demonstration of His grace. Paul gives you four things to understand about God's demonstration of grace.

1. The _____ of God's grace

(Titus 2:11)

- a) Grace appeared in the person of _____
- b) Grace brings _____ to all men
- c) You are saved by grace through _____
(Ephesians 2:8-9)

The grace that is available to all men must be recognized and _____.

2. Your _____ under grace

(Titus 2:12)

- a) Grace teaches you to say "No" to ungodliness and _____ passions
- b) Grace teaches you to live _____, upright, and godly lives (inward – outward – upward)

(continued on back)

Grace replaces your fear of living for God with _____ and the desire to live for God.

3. The transition from grace to _____

(Titus 2:13)

- a) Christians are waiting for “our blessed _____”
- b) Christians wait for the appearing of the glory of our great _____ and _____ Jesus Christ

Grace will culminate in the power and _____ of Jesus.

4. The power of grace gives _____

(Titus 2:14)

- a) Jesus _____ you from all lawlessness
- b) Jesus _____ you for Himself
- c) Jesus changes you so that you can be _____ for good works

When you receive the grace of God in Jesus, your life is _____.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I _____ God’s work of grace in my life and I choose to live in His grace.

Grace replaces your fear of living for God with _____ and the desire to live for God.

3. The transition from grace to _____

(Titus 2:13)

- a) Christians are waiting for “our blessed _____”
- b) Christians wait for the appearing of the glory of our great _____ and _____ Jesus Christ

Grace will culminate in the power and _____ of Jesus.

4. The power of grace gives _____

(Titus 2:14)

- a) Jesus _____ you from all lawlessness
- b) Jesus _____ you for Himself
- c) Jesus changes you so that you can be _____ for good works

When you receive the grace of God in Jesus, your life is _____.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I _____ God’s work of grace in my life and I choose to live in His grace.

The Demonstration of Grace

Titus 2:11-15

Why would someone want to try to live a godly life? It can seem out of reach and leave you with a sense of failure and powerlessness. Paul explains that grace is not only the reason for living a godly life but it is also the source of the power to live that life. God's grace is more than a concept or a hope that we have. God has provided a living demonstration of His grace. Paul gives you four things to understand about God's demonstration of grace.

1. The manifestation of God's grace

(Titus 2:11)

- a) Grace appeared in the person of Jesus
- b) Grace brings salvation to all men
- c) You are saved by grace through faith
(Ephesians 2:8-9)

The grace that is available to all men must be recognized and received.

2. Your training under grace

(Titus 2:12)

- a) Grace teaches you to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions
- b) Grace teaches you to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives (inward – outward – upward)

(continued on back)

The Demonstration of Grace

Titus 2:11-15

Why would someone want to try to live a godly life? It can seem out of reach and leave you with a sense of failure and powerlessness. Paul explains that grace is not only the reason for living a godly life but it is also the source of the power to live that life. God's grace is more than a concept or a hope that we have. God has provided a living demonstration of His grace. Paul gives you four things to understand about God's demonstration of grace.

1. The manifestation of God's grace

(Titus 2:11)

- a) Grace appeared in the person of Jesus
- b) Grace brings salvation to all men
- c) You are saved by grace through faith
(Ephesians 2:8-9)

The grace that is available to all men must be recognized and received.

2. Your training under grace

(Titus 2:12)

- a) Grace teaches you to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions
- b) Grace teaches you to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives (inward – outward – upward)

(continued on back)

Grace replaces your fear of living for God with appreciation and the desire to live for God.

3. The transition from grace to glory

(Titus 2:13)

- a) Christians are waiting for “our blessed hope”
- b) Christians wait for the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ

Grace will culminate in the power and presence of Jesus.

4. The power of grace gives new life

(Titus 2:14)

- a) Jesus redeems you from all lawlessness
- b) Jesus purifies you for Himself
- c) Jesus changes you so that you can be zealous for good works

When you receive the grace of God in Jesus, your life is changed.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I welcome God’s work of grace in my life and I choose to live in His grace.

Grace replaces your fear of living for God with appreciation and the desire to live for God.

3. The transition from grace to glory

(Titus 2:13)

- a) Christians are waiting for “our blessed hope”
- b) Christians wait for the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ

Grace will culminate in the power and presence of Jesus.

4. The power of grace gives new life

(Titus 2:14)

- a) Jesus redeems you from all lawlessness
- b) Jesus purifies you for hHmself
- c) Jesus changes you so that you can be zealous for good works

When you receive the grace of God in Jesus, your life is changed.

MY STANDARD FOR LIFE

I welcome God’s work of grace in my life and I choose to live in His grace.