

The Christmas Proclamation
- The Prophets

Isaiah 11:1-5

Once man sinned in the Garden of Eden it meant that man would need a Savior to have light for his darkness, life for the power of death, love to overcome God's judgement, and truth to overcome the devil's lies. This Savior would have to be the Anointed One of God; he would have to be Messiah. The prophecies of the Old Testament are so specific that a person would have to be chosen by God to fulfil them. The Christmas proclamation that the bells proclaim in their ringing identify nine fulfilled prophecies.
