

End Times Q&A

Pastor Pierre Rosa

1. During the millennium, the earth will be populated only with the tribulation saints (those who are alive when Jesus returns) and their offspring, correct? Will this be primarily Jewish believers?

2. We think we understand that all the believers who died before Jesus returns to the earth will be in heaven, correct?

3. Is this the period (while we're in heaven) when we will be judging the angels?

4. What will we be doing in heaven, and will we have any interaction with those on earth?

5. Also, regarding the period when the sheep and goats are separated, will this take place at the end of the millennium?
